THE WHITE HOUSE is one of the few homes in Washington which hasn't been boarded up for the summer, for its mistress has been distinctly on the job through all these hot weeks.

However, unless the present rumors blow up in smoke, as have the past ones, Mrs. Harding may have a chance to slip away to the coast in the fall, for some persons persist in the view that the President will get away from Washington in the early autumn on a tour taking him well into the West, if not actually to the Pacific coast, and as his faithful companion, Mrs. Harding will no doubt accompany him.

Nevertheless, all the odds would seem to be against such a trip. The President's desk bears invitations from many sections, but to none has he given much encouragement, because he believes it his duty to remain in the Capital until the industrial crisis is adjusted.

Miss Mary Harrington, of Reno, extended to him today a personal invitation to take part in the Nevada rodeo to be held at Reno. She was accompanied to the White House by Senator Oddie of Nevada and President a "six-gallon hat" to wear should his engagements permit him to leave Washington on the suggested Western trip.

Not having gone to the Pacific coast during his campaign for the presidency in 1920, there has been an insistent and persistent demand for a visit, and Mr. Harding has wished to go out to get better acquainted. It is not to be thought the President would indulge in a stump-speaking tour for election of Republicans to Congress, but numerous occasions would be presented to him to explain in person what the Administration was trying to do at Washington, and such addresses doubtless would prove helpful to party candidates, especially in those sections where the President is popular and Congress is not.

MISS BETTY WALMESLEY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burr Edwards, who is visiting in Pine Orchard, Conn.

The Secretary of the Treasury, Andrew W. Mellon, has been spending several days with his daughter, Miss Alice Mellon, and his son, Paul Mellon, at Frides Crossing, Mass.

The Secretary is planning to return to Frides Crossing next week-end, staying over Labor Day, to be with his daughter and son. Unless their plans are changed, Miss Mellon will not return to Washington before the early part of October.

Mrs. Elliot Wadsworth, wife of the assistant secretary of the Treasury, who is at Northeast Harbor, Me., where she has been most of the summer, plans to join her husband here as soon as they get located in a house.

Mrs. Morris Sheppard, wife of Senator Sheppard, has returned from Cape May, N. J., where she spent the last week-end. Senator Sheppard accompanied her there, returning to Washington the next day.

Senator Watson's family, returning from Far West.

Mrs. James E. Watson, wife of Senator Watson, accompanied by her daughter and son, Miss Katherine Watson and Joseph Watson, will return to Washington tomorrow from California where they went early in July.

Senator Henry Cabot Lodge has returned to Washington after spending a short time at his home at Nahant, Mass.

The Minister of Switzerland, Mr. Marc Peter, will return today from Dark Harbor, Me., where he has spent several weeks with Mme. Peter and their children. Mme. Peter will not return to Washington until September.

The First Assistant Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Edward C. Finney have as their guest Mrs. J. K. Freeman, wife of Capt. Freeman, U. S. A., who will remain with them a week.

The Charge d'Affaires of Austria and Mme. Prochnik will move into their new residence, 1851 Wyoming avenue, Sept. 10. The office of the legation will also be moved to the Wyoming avenue house.

Mr. and Mrs. William Eric Fowler have closed their town house on Wil-hire boulevard, Los Angeles, and are now occupying their beautiful home, La Canada, near Pasadena, where they will spend the month of August and part of September. Mr. and Mrs. Fowler were entertained extensively upon their return to California, and of these latter part of September many parties are being planned in their honor. They expect to open their H street apartment about November 1 and will spend the winter in Washington.

Judge and Mrs. O. M. Spencer, of Chicago, whose daughter, Miss Sara Spencer, was recently the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred P. Thom, arrived at the New Willard today for visit of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hill are at Cape May, N. J., and will not return for another week.

Miss Betty Walmesley, who is visiting Mrs. Dorothy Arguimbau in New York, spent last week with her mother at Saratoga. Miss Walmesley will come to Washington early in September for a brief visit before joining her mother in Kentucky. Miss Gracia Walmesley is visiting in New York.

Consul General Roger Tredwell will leave tomorrow for a visit in New York for about a week.

Mrs. L. Cody Marsh, wife of the Rev. L. Cody Marsh, who spent the summer in Virginia, has reopened her apartment in the Burlington Hotel. Mr. Marsh will return later.

George Guernsey, Jr., of Independence, Kan., is at the New Willard Hotel.

Capt. Waggaman and Family To Motor To Annapolis.

Capt. and Mrs. Ennals Waggaman and their children, who have spent the month at Eaglesmere, Pa., will motor from there at the end of the week to Annapolis to make a brief visit with Captain Waggaman's mother, Mrs. John F. Waggaman, who is spending her summer home, Wild Rose Lodge, on South River. Mrs. Waggaman has returned to South River after a visit in Ocean City, Md.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd P. Waggaman left yesterday for New York to meet their son, Robert, who will arrive there from a camp in Canada, where he has spent most of the summer. Mr. and Mrs. Waggaman and their son, remaining here a few days before leaving to spend a fortnight with Mr. Waggaman's mother, Mrs. John Floyd Waggaman, at her farm near Annapolis.

Mrs. Roscoe Carlyle Bulmer, who is spending most of the summer at her farm near Annapolis, will entertain a house party over Labor Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Spalding Home From Milwaukee Visit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wallace Spalding have returned from Milwaukee, where they were visiting Mrs. Spalding's mother, Mrs. Francis Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Reeder, of Big Stone Gap, Va., are guests at the New Willard.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin G. Gerdes and family, of Cincinnati, who have been making an extended tour of the South, are in Washington for a few days en route home. Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Williamson and family, of Chicago, who have also been South for a considerable time, are at the Burlington Hotel.

The Rev. Dr. Howard D. Talbott, who recently accepted charge of the First Presbyterian Church at Pottsville, Pa., and Mrs. Talbott, left last evening for Michigan, where they will spend several weeks with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pindell, at their summer home at North Port Point. They will later go to the home in Pottsville, Ill., to spend a short time before going to Pottsville, where Dr. Talbott will assume his duties. Dr. Talbott was assistant rector of the Church of the Covenant for many years.

Major John G. Quekemyer, aide to General Pershing, Major Scott and a few officers from Fort Myer will leave Saturday, taking with them a number of horses to enter in several horse shows in New York State. They will first go to Rochester to attend the show which takes place there from September 4 to 9. Later they will attend the show at Syracuse from September 11 to 16 and will probably return to Washington to remain a short time before leaving to attend the show at Bryn Mawr the last of the month.

One of last Friday's interesting events was the wedding of Miss Irene Marston, of Williamstown, W. Va., and Will H. Hogue, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Hogue, of this city, which took place quietly in the Episcopal Church at Twelfth and C streets southwest. The ceremony was performed at 2 o'clock by the Rev. A. J. Terrey in the presence of a few friends. Mrs. Ethel Payne, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor and Jerry Payne, a best man. The church was artistically decorated, a profusion of summer flowers being used.

The bride wore a gown of white satin crepe, fashionably designed, with white slippers and other accessories to harmonize, and her flowers were Bride roses. Mrs. Payne wore a becoming costume, also of white.

Immediately after the ceremony a luncheon was served at the home of the bridegroom, in Virginia avenue, for the bridal party and a few intimate friends. The table had a lovely centerpiece of summer blossoms. Mrs. Hogue is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. George Marston, of Williamstown, W. Va., where he has been prominently connected with the West Virginia Methodist Episcopal conference for many years. Mrs. Hogue is a musician.

Mr. and Mrs. Hogue will make their home in Washington.
